Carey y Cía., "Chilean Law Firm of the Year"

Carey y Cía. was named for second time as "Chilean Law Firm of the Year" by Chambers Latin America, prestigious British publication. The prize was received by the managing partner, Jaime Carey, in an attended ceremony in Miami.

Every year, Chambers and Partners carries out a thorough investigation of the major law firms in the country, and also reviews the firms' achievements in the last twelve months in representative cases, strategic growth and service quality.

In previous years, Carey y Cía. also has been recognized by Chambers as Chilean Client Service Firm (2010); Law Firm of the Year (2009) and with Chambers' Global Lifetime Achievement Award, given to Jorge Carey, partner of Carey y Cía. (2007).

Carey y Cía. is Chile's largest law firm with over 150 professionals. It is widely perceived as one of the leading law firms in Latin America and its origins can be traced back to 1905.
