

ATENTO EMITE BONO EN CHILE

Luis Bulcao Pinheiro

Kirkland & Ellis LLP's New York office and Carey in Santiago have helped Spanish customer relationship management company Atento issue US$400 million worth of notes.

The administrative arrangers hired Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP in New York, London and São Paulo.

Atento issued the notes through its Luxembourg subsidiary Atento Luxco. The offering closed on 10 August.

The company provides customer relationship management and business process outsourcing services across Latin America.

Kirkland's New York office also helped Atento obtain a US$50 million revolving credit facility. The lenders took counsel from Davis Polk in New York.
