CAREY LEADS THE CHAMBERS LATIN AMERICA 2026 GUIDE WITH 14 PRACTICE AREAS RANKED IN BAND 1

For the fifth consecutive year, the firm tops the Chilean ranking in the world's most prestigious legal guide.

This year, its leadership is consolidated with 58 lawyers recognized across 23 practice areas.

Carey has once again been recognized as the law firm with the highest number of practice areas in Band 1 in the Chilean chapter of the 2026 edition of Chambers Latin America, the most prestigious legal ranking globally.

The firm was highlighted with 14 practice areas in Band 1, while 15 of its partners and counsels were also ranked in the same category, maintaining its position as the Chilean firm with the most partners and directors placed in the highest band.

"These results reaffirm Carey's commitment to technical excellence, innovation, and a strategic vision for professional practice. We are proud to lead most of the key areas of the market and to support our clients with high-level legal solutions across virtually all sectors of the economy," said Pablo Iacobelli, Managing Partner at Carey.

At a regional level, Carey ranks among the top firms with the most practice areas in Band 1, alongside Rodrigo Elías Medrano from Peru and Marval from Argentina.

Chambers Latin America publishes its guide annually based on a rigorous research process, including interviews and feedback from clients, lawyers, and industry experts. You can view all the results in the report, available here
