CAREY VISAS EXPANDS ITS VISA FILING SERVICES TO CHILEANS UNDER THE CHILE/US FREE TRADE AGREEMENT

After 30 years of experience in corporate immigration for foreigners who intend to reside and/or work in Chile, Carey Visas has added to its services the filing of non-immigrant visas available under the Free Trade Agreement between Chile and the United States for Chileans who are looking to invest, trade and/or work temporarily in the United States.

The enlargement of its services responds to the integration of Visas USA, a company founded by Stephen Buchanan, an American attorney specialized in representing Chilean clients in the handling of their immigration processes to United States.

Carey Visas, as a company related to Carey law firm, provides clients with comprehensive advice including, among the handling and processing of permits and visas, the analysis of legal matters associated to the immigration field, such as employment, social security, tax, and corporate issues arising from international assignments.
