

DECREE NO. 420 TO SUPPORT FAMILIES, EMPLOYEES AND MICRO, SMALL AND MEDIUM ENTERPRISES DUE TO THE DIFFICULTIES GENERATED BY THE COVID-19

On March 30, Decree No. 420, which contains various tax measures that seek to provide greater liquidity to companies, SMEs and employees, was published.

The Decree No. 420 considers the following measures:

- Deferral of the payment of VAT corresponding to the months of April, May and June 2020, under the following rules:
 - In the case of taxpayers who meet the requirements for the SME regime under article 14 (D) of the Income Tax Law ("ITL"), the deferred VAT will be distributed in 12 monthly installments, equal and adjusted as from July 2020.
 - In the case of taxpayers who exceed the income level to qualify under No. 1.1 above, but whose annual income is less than 350,000 Foment Units ("UF")¹, the deferred VAT will be distributed in 6 monthly installments, equal and readjusted as from July 2020. The income obtained by related entities will also be considered.
- Deferral of the payment of the Real Estate Tax corresponding to the month of April for: (i) taxpayer of Personal Income Tax and Labor Income Tax with properties with a tax assessment under CLP 133 million, and (ii) taxpayer of Corporate Tax whose annual income is less than UF 350,000. In the latter case, the income of related entities is also considered.

The deferred contribution will be paid in three installments, equal and adjusted, together with the following three contribution quotas.

- Remission of Monthly Provisional Payments (PPM) for the months of April, May and June 2020.
- Advance payment of income tax refunds requested by individuals and taxpayers who meet the requirements for the SME regime under article 14 (D) of the ITL. The refund is anticipated to April.
- Extension of the deadline to pay the income tax declared by the
