

MINERA VALLE CENTRAL OBTIENE FINANCIAMIENTO PARA SU EXPANSIÓN

Raevathi Supramaniam

Carey has helped copper exploration and mining company Minera Valle Central obtain a loan from Export Development Canada and BBVA for US$35 million.

Larraín y Asociados advised the banks.

The funds will be used finance the expansion of Minera Valle Central's processing plant within the El Teniente copper mine, which is operated by state-owned mining company Codelco.

Both banks supplied Minera Valle Central with a US$64 million loan back in 2015. Carey helped the borrower amend security documents granted for that financing in line with the new finance package.

The deal closed on 3 August.
