TWO NEW PARTNERS IN CAREY

Carey adds two to partnership

Chile's largest law firm, Carey, has boosted its intellectual property and litigation departments with the promotion of two associates to the partnership: Francisco Carey and Ricardo Reveco.

The promotions were made on 3 April. Carey, 36, holds an LLM from Duke University and focuses his practice on IP litigation, licensing, distribution and franchise agreements. He has previously worked in-house at LexisNexis in the US. Reveco, 37, specialises in civil and commercial litigation, arbitration, regulatory litigation and bankruptcy proceedings. He is a former chief of staff for the governor of Santiago. He also studied at Duke University and is admitted to the New York Bar.
