

Lorena Pavic joins Carey's Executive Committee

Lorena Pavic, a member of Carey's Antitrust and Regulated Markets and Public Law groups, was chosen yesterday as a new member of Carey's Executive Committee.

Lorena joins Carey's administrative committee, which also includes Jorge Carey, Jaime Carey, Alfonso Silva, Salvador Valdés.

Lorena, a lawyer who received her degree from the University of Chile, where she graduated with honors, began working at Carey more than 20 years ago and has been a partner for 10 years. She is a professor of antitrust law at both Universidad de Chile and the Universidad Católica. In addition, she is a member of the Free Competition Committee of the Chilean Confederation of Production and Commerce (CPC), the Antitrust Committee of the Chilean Bar Association and the advisory council of the Center for Free Competition at the Universidad Católica de Chile.