

CAREY STRENGTHENS ITS TAX PRACTICE WITH THE APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL

Lawyer Daniela Pfeffer was elected as counsel at Carey.

Daniela Pfeffer focuses her practice in corporate and personal tax advisory, local and international consulting, project financing, mergers and acquisitions and corporate restructuring. Throughout her career, she has advised Chilean and foreign companies on complex M&A transactions in sectors such as energy, mining, tech infrastructure, agriculture, and forestry. She has also led tax due diligence processes and strategic negotiations in company purchase and sale operations.

Her career path has been recognized by prestigious legal publications, including Chambers and Partners, The Legal 500 and Top Ranked Legal, which highlight her professional excellence and prominence in the tax practice.

Daniela holds a law degree from Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile, where she graduated summa cum laude, and an LL.M. in International Taxation from New York University (NYU).

With this appointment, Carey strengthens its commitment to professional excellence and the promotion of internal talent, reaffirming its position as the leading law firm in the Chilean legal market.

Carey has more than 280 legal professionals, including 44 partners, two senior counsels, six counsels and three directors.
