

Diego Peralta, partner at Carey and one of the heads of the Banking and Finance Group, was appointed as member of the Minister of Finance Capital Markets Advisory Council, which advises the Minister in the development of strategies for the development of the Chilean financial market and to turn it into the hub for investors to access Latin American market.

The council, formed by professionals of several areas, aims to institutionalize the public-private dialog regarding the Chilean financial market and catapult the country as a regional center in the short term. One of the first tasks of the council is to suggest legal and regulatory modifications that guarantee a competitive capital markets sector.

Other members of the Capital Markets Advisory Council for the 2015-2017 period are: Axel Christensen, Guillermo Tagle, Ignacio Álvarez, Jaime de la Barra, Alberto Etchegaray, Kathleen Barclay, Boris Buvinic, Álvaro Clarke, Fernando Coloma, Alfredo Ergas, Víctor Hassi, Christian Larraín, Matías Larraín, Dieter Linneberg, Francisco Lyon, Jorge Selaive, Susana Tonda and Rodrigo Valdés.
