

Chambers and Partners names Carey as Chilean Law Firm of the Year for the eighth time

Carey was chosen as the best Chilean Law Firm of the Year by Chambers and Partners. This was the eighth time that the firm has received this recognition making it the firm that has received this award the most times in the country. The award was presented at the Chambers Latin America Awards 2021, in a ceremony held at the Fontainebleau hotel in Miami.

The firm has also received numerous other recognitions including the Latin American Firm of the Year award in 2012 as well as being recognized five times with the Customer Service Award, thus making Carey the most awarded firm in Chile in this category.

Chambers and Partners is a prestigious English publication with global reach dedicated to the legal world.
