

Latin Lawyer announces Law Firm Leader of the Year Award

Christina McKeon Frutuoso
25 February 2020

 Print article

Latin Lawyer is pleased to announce this year's winner of the Law Firm Leader of the Year Award: Jaime Carey of Chilean firm Carey.

Having served as managing partner since 2000, Jaime Carey leads the Chilean powerhouse that has dominated the legal market for decades. He has steered Chile's largest firm from success to success, pushing it to innovate and invest heavily in technology to constantly break new ground in its legal service offering.

Jaime Carey has actively ensured that democracy rules at the firm, where he has been a lawyer since 1979. From helping restructure partners' compensation system to removing the cost of entering and leaving the partnership, Jaime Carey is a leader who is staunchly committed to making sure all lawyers feel empowered as valued members of a successful operation.

Latin Lawyer will present Jaime Carey with his award at its annual charity awards ceremony at Hotel Unique in São Paulo on 7 May. Tickets are available here.